Paws offer a very high standard of care, within the school classroom, at an affordable price. Working parents are entitled to the childcare component of the working tax credit system for which Paws fees qualify. This can be up to 80% of fees if you work 16 hours per week. You can also save both tax and national insurance on fees, by having your employer pay part of their salary as a childcare voucher, Paws accepts all Busy Bees, Accor and Care 4 vouchers towards fees
