BeauSandVer Consortium Community Programme Autumn Term 2007

After a very successful year last year we are delighted to continue the Community programme for 2007/8.

New courses

New opportunities this term include classes in Excel and Outlook, and the chance to learn felting and more advanced jewellery-making techniques. Numeracy courses are available free of charge to parents looking to improve their skills and gain a qualification, whilst budding broadcasters can discover the delights of amateur radio technology. To find out about free courses available in Family Learning Fortnight (6–21 October 07) call Carole Heselton.

Taking part

The community programme is open to parents, family members and teachers, as well as neighbours and the local community, so do encourage your friends and family to join in. While most courses are adult based, there are also some opportunities for children. Additionally, if you have skills that you are interested in teaching the community or sharing in school, please contact Carole Heselton.

Course fees

Where possible, courses are offered free of charge, or a minimum fee is charged to cover costs only. Fees cannot be refunded if students drop out of a course. Some courses require a minimum number of students to meet the costs, and will not run if insufficient numbers enrol.

For further information contact Carole Heselton on 01727 754113 or email carole.heselton@verulam.herts.sch.uk. Extra copies of the Community Programme can be downloaded from www.beausandver.org.uk.
